How do HEIs work?

How do HEIs work?

Students as Partners

1998, UNESCO defines students as stakeholders at the HE system.

2001, Prague communiqué

“Students should participate in and influence the organization and content of education at universities and other higher education institutions.”

Students as Partners

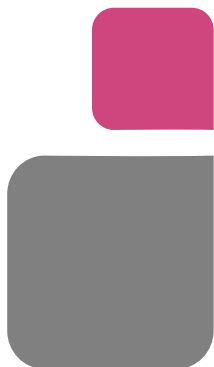

2011, Budapest communiqué

“Students are the main actors in higher education.”

2015, Yerevan communiqué

“We will support and protect students and staff in exercising their right to academic freedom and ensure their representation as full partners in the governance of autonomous higher education institutions.”

“We will actively involve students, as full members of the academic community, as well as other stakeholders, in curriculum design and in quality assurance.”

Students as Partners

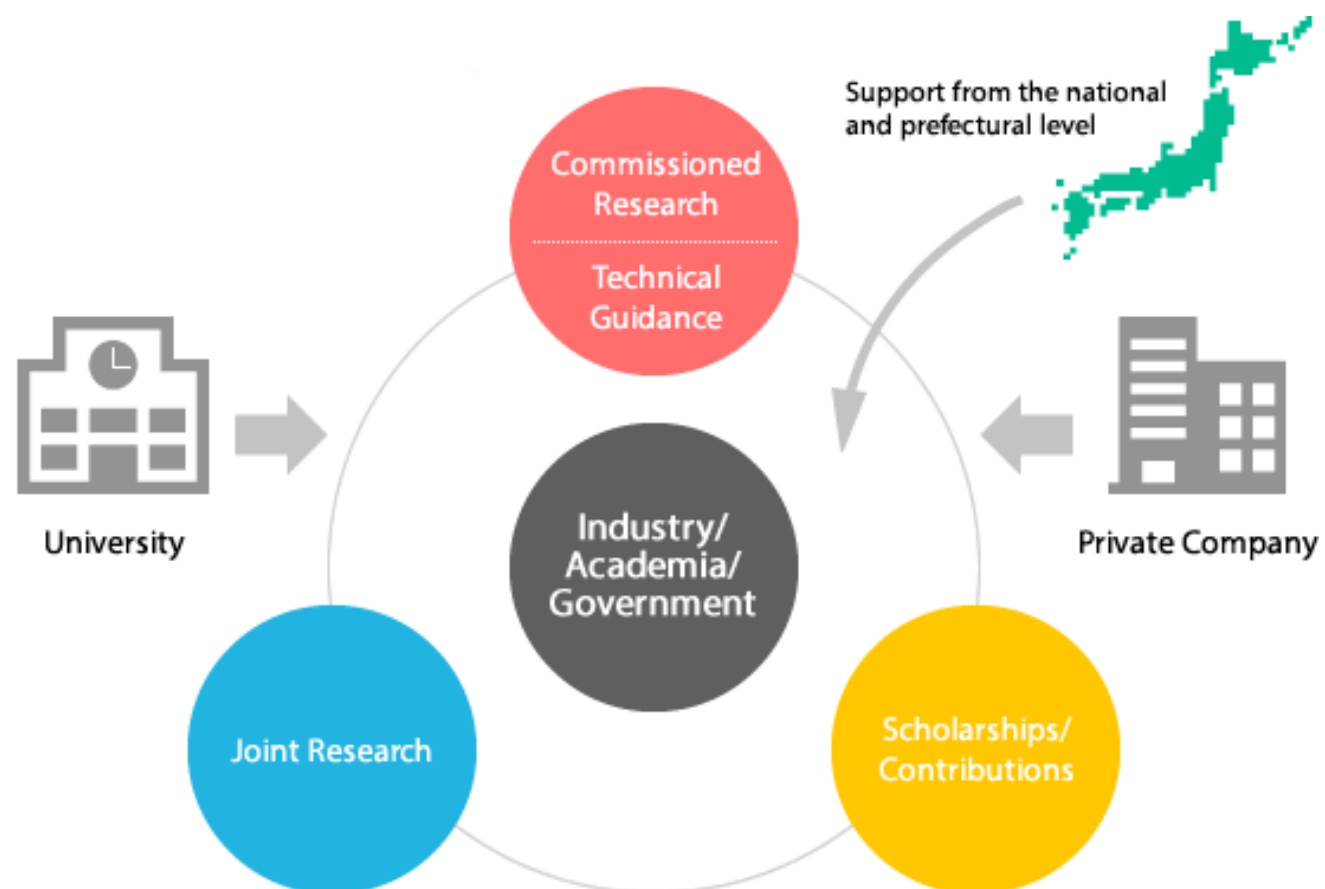

Opportunity - to attend meetings and events

Attendance - students take those opportunities

Engagement - attend and contribute effectively

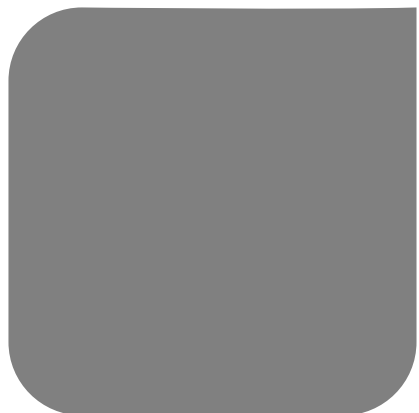

How should HEIs work?
